Parent-Teacher Members And School Authorities Express Concern Over School Crossing

The paramount business of the Harbor City P.T.A., under the able direction of the president, Mrs. E. R. Walker, which came up for discussion at the Feb. 14 meeting, concerned the danger at the school crossing on Normandie ave. and 253rd st., where 500 school children cross each day enroute to the Harbor City School.

Last week a child was killed at the crossing and grave concern has been expressed by all the Parent-Teacher members.

Mrs. Jane Rye, principal and her faculty members for the lives of all the children who are forced to cross the busy intersection.

A committee, comprising Mrs. Julia Cucci, Harbor City school safety chairman, Misses F. T. Austin, H. L. Manning, G. A. Kyllingstad, J. Zell, Jane Rye and E. R. Walker was appointed to look into future safety precautions at the intersection.

It was reported that letters had been sent to Los Angeles City Councilman Moore, to the Los Angeles City Traffic Department, the Los Angeles Board of Education and personal calls had been made to Mrs. E. H. Reay, chairman of the Tenth District Safety Committee.

The committee reported that all departments contacted have promised fullest co-operation in making the intersection as safe as possible.

The matter was taken before the Lomita Coordinating Council at their Friday meeting. Mrs. Walker reported, and the Council will send a letter to the Los Angeles Traffic Department asking for the speed limit to be cut from 55 to 25 miles per hour through that section of Normandie ave., warnings painted legibly on the highway and a longer signal for 253rd st. to allow the children time to cross.

Future meetings for the Harbor City P.T.A. to be mindful of are the motion picture show for both children and adults tomorrow at the school; an executive board meeting for 1:30 p. m. March 6; a Room Mothers pot-luck luncheon meeting to begin at 12 noon March 8; the regular March meeting with election of officers on March 14 and the Lomita-San Pedro P.T.A. council meeting at the Seventh street school, San Pedro, March 22.
